L. E. SMITH IS SPEAKER FOR CIVIC COUNCIL

L. E. Smith, the first president of the Gettysburg Travel Council and vice president of the Chamber of Commerce, spoke to the Women's Civic Council Friday night at the YWCA. He told of the work that Virginia is doing to attract tourists and said he felt Gettysburg could do much more than it has been doing.

He spoke of the "good work" done by Mrs. Helen L. Snyder, secretary of the local Chamber of Commerce, who acts as a co-ordinator between Gettysburg and its visitors, sends out thousands of folders, conducts a lost and found department and answers about 300 letters a month concerning Gettysburg, in addition to other duties. He explained the work of the Travel Council which is only a year old and works under the Chamber of Commerce, and now has 160 members, with a membership fee of $10. He said "it is estimated that about six or seven million dollars is left here annually by tourists and it is the purpose of the Travel Council members, who are all amateurs at this, to learn how to treat tourists so that they will always feel kindly toward Gettysburg and speak about it to their friends."

He listed the following committees which handle their work: Know-Your-Gettysburg, bumper strip, which put out 8,000 strips last year; Film, now working on a Gettysburg film; Road Signs, now erecting four

BLOOMS COLOR BATTLEFIELD

Deer and blossoms on the Gettysburg Battlefield are added attractions for local residents and tourists.

The huge magnolia trees in the National Cemetery were at peak bloom over the weekend. The Little Round Top area and other sections of the field were covered with Red Bud, "Judas Tree." The Red Bud is expected to be at its peak of beauty this week, depending upon the weather. Dogwood appeared ready to add its white to the other colors within another two weeks.

Another attraction are the deer which roam the field and attract many visitors, locally and otherwise. Just before dusk is considered the best time to see the deer and many local residents tour the field most of the year just to see the deer, some in herds of eight or more.

Hungary's Communists Purge Premier Nagy; Elect Hegedus

BUDAPEST, Hungary — Hungary's Communist party made public today its long-expected purge of Premier Imre Nagy. Former Deputy Premier Andras Hegedus was elected to succeed him as head of the government.

The Hungarian Parliament elected Hegedus in a session to announce said Nagy had been fired and stripped of all party posts for causing "grave damage to the party, to the people's democracy and to our social building."

Just before electing Hegedus for Budapest, and Joseph Mekis, a lesser party official, to the political committee, and acting Interior Minister Laszlo Piros to be a deputy member of that committee.

The party also announced the election of Istvan Kovacs, secretary of the party committee for Budapest, and Joseph Mekis, a lesser party official, to the political committee, and acting Interior Minister Laszlo Piros to be a deputy member of that committee.

Nagy's formal ouster had been anticipated ever since the party's five weeks ago for "right wing deviationism." The 58-year-old leader had espoused the new look emphasis on consumer goods which

TOWN NATIVE DIES SATURDAY IN WASHINGTON

The new York Springs ambulance lost a race to the stork early Sunday morning and an 8½-pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rothenhoefer, York Springs R. D. as the ambulance raced up Carlisle St. about 6 a.m. with its siren.

Miss Sarah C. Stallsmith, 88, died Saturday afternoon at about 2 o'clock at the National Lutheran Home, Washington, D. C., where she had been residing since February, 1954. She had been in ill health for several weeks. Death was caused by infirmities of age.

A native of Gettysburg, she was a daughter of the late William C. and Barbara (Culp) Stallsmith, and had resided all of her life here with the exception of the last 14 months. Most of her adult life she resided with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Stallsmith, 132 E. Middle St. Mr. Stallsmith died a number of years ago. Mrs. Stallsmith is now a resident of Reading.

ACTIVE AT ST. JAMES

Miss Stallsmith was a life long member of St. James Lutheran Church here and taught in the Sunday School primary department for 30 years. She was church organist at St. James Lutheran for 13 years and was a life member of the Missionary Society and the Mite Society. She was also a member of the Auxiliary of the National Lutheran Home. She was active in her church connections here until she moved to the Lutheran Home at Washington.

Surviving are her sister-in-law, Mrs. George W. Stallsmith, and a number of nieces and nephews. She was the last surviving member of her immediate family.

Funeral services Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock from the Bender Funeral Home, Carlisle St., with the Rev. Dr. Ralph R. Gresh, her pastor, officiating. Interment in Evergreen Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 o'clock this evening.

With its sirens sounding the ambulance headed for the hospital at top speed. As they passed the

It's spring cleaning — and fix-up time—for motorists, too.

So, proper and thorough preparation now for warmer-weather driving will pay handsome dividends in comfort, safety and economy in the months to come.

Winter always "takes something out" of an automobile, both old and new, so it's the wiser motorist, indeed, who takes time out right now to get things shipshape again.

Here are a few "things to do:"

Drain anti-freeze solution from radiator, flush and refill. Check hoses for breaks or weak spots. Check radiator for damage to cores.

Check air pressure in tires and keep up to manufacturer's specifications. Switch tires on all four wheels to insure even wear.

Have brakes and brake fluid, cylinders and lines checked.

Make certain all lights and turning signals are functioning perfectly.

Tune motor for better gas mileage.

Change motor oil to proper viscosity. Check filter for possible replacement.

Check windshield wiper action and cleaning efficiency of blades.

Check exhaust for possible breaks to eliminate carbon monoxide dangers.

Lubricate chassis and have body bolts tightened if necessary.

Replace cracked or broken glass.

Clean up and repaint rust spots.

Clean out glove compartment; make certain sun glasses are handy.

COLEMAN HELPS WRITE MOVIE

Dr. J. Walter Coleman, superintendent of the Gettysburg National Park, has written the preliminary manuscript for a two-reel documentary technicolor movie on "Gettysburg" at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Studio in Culver City, Calif. It will be a CinemaScope production.

Dr. Coleman was requested to fly to California by Dore Schary, exec producer for MGM two weeks ago to confer on the movie and cooperate in the script writing. He is a guest of MGM and has been assigned an office and secretary with assistant writers to draft the script.

Some of the film will be "shot" in the studios and later, perhaps in two weeks, an MGM crew will come to Gettysburg and take the remainder of the picture.

Lincoln's Gettysburg address will be woven into the film.

county home at the edge of town, Mrs. Rothenhoefer said: "You'd better get there quickly, the baby's here."

The ambulance got to the wrong door at the hospital and there was delay in getting in. Then the elevator jammed and Mrs. Rothenhoefer had to be carried to the second floor while a nurse took care of the lustily squalling infant.

It was the ambulance's first race with the stork since being put into service April 3.

EINSTEIN DIES THIS MORNING IN PRINCETON

PRINCETON, N.J. — World-famous scientist Albert Einstein died at 1:15 a.m. (EST) today at Princeton hospital.

Einstein, who was 76, had been admitted to the hospital at noon Friday. The hospital said the cause of death was inflammation of the gall bladder.

An ardent Zionist, Einstein was among those who, after World War II, urged the free entry of Jews into the Rothenhoefer home.

Surviving are his wife, Dr. Elsa Einstein, and two sons, Hans and Peter, and a daughter, Princeton University student. The Einstein family has been a fixture in Princeton since 1935.

Services will be held at the Princeton Cemetery on Saturday morning at 10:30 a.m. at the Princeton Cemetery.

IRAQ ATTACK ON COMMUNISM IS APPLAUDED AT CONFERENCE

By HAROLD K. MILKS

BANDUNG, Indonesia (AP) — Iraq's Foreign Minister Fadil Jamali denounced international communism before the Asian African conference today and drew prolonged applause from many of the 29 delegations.

Red China's Premier Chou En-lai and others from Peking sat with set faces as Jamali charged "international communism is a materialistic religion that breeds hatred among classes and peoples." Prime Minister Nehru's Indian delegation also heard the speech in silence.

"Communism is a new form of colonialism much more dangerous to us than the old colonialism," declared Jamali, whose Arab country is linked indirectly with the North Atlantic powers through an alliance with Turkey. "No nation on earth is free from its effects."

Is Congratulated

Premier Mohammed Ali of Pakistan, which has a mutual aid treaty with the United States, walked across the conference room, shook hands with Jamali and congratulated him at the end of the speech.

Chief delegates were delivering 15-minute policy statements in a program which it appeared would go into tomorrow.

Indonesian President Soekarno opened the conference with a declaration that the population of Asia and Africa, totaling more than a billion, "can inject the voice of reason into world affairs."

Soekarno, one of Asia's greatest orators, spoke slowly in flawless English.

"Perhaps now more than at any other moment in history," he declared, "society, government and statesmanship need to be based upon the highest code of morality."

"It is the subordination of everything to the well being of mankind."

World Of Fear

"But today we are faced with a situation where the well being of mankind is not always the primary consideration. Many who are in places of high power think, rather, of controlling the world."

"We are living in a world of fear," he continued, "fear of the future, of the hydrogen bomb and of ideologies.

"I hope this conference will give guidance to mankind . . . Will point out to mankind the way which it must take to attain safety and peace," he said. "I hope it will give evidence that Asia and Africa have been reborn, nay — a new Asia and a new Africa have been born."

The only other major speaker at the opening public session was Indonesian Premier Ali Sastroamidjojo, elected conference chairman unanimously. He was nominated by Egyptian Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser and seconded by Red China's Chou En-lai, Jordan's Foreign Minister Sayyid Wahid-Salah and Philippine delegate Carlos P. Romulo.

Denounces Communism

Iraqi Foreign Minister Fadil Jamali circulated a statement vigorously denouncing communism as a "new form of colonialism more deadly than the old one." He also defended military alliances such as Iraq's pact with Turkey and Britain as "essential for self preservation until such time when the Communists may change their minds and hearts."

Jamali's outspoken attack on the Reds was expected to anger both Chou and India's neutralist Prime Minister Nehru, one of the five foreign hosts.

Sastroamidjojo introduced three subjects likely to loom large in the conference discussions — control of nuclear weapons, the five principles of coexistence first formulated by Nehru and espoused by Chou and Burmese Premier U Nu, and the admission of Asian-African countries including Communist China into the U.N.

Local Man Involved In Frederick Crash

Two persons were injured, neither seriously, in a three-vehicle accident in Frederick.

Albert L. Sanet, Buffalo, N.Y., was taken to Frederick Memorial Hospital after complaining of pains in the neck and head and was discharged after x-rays.

Mrs. Mary Sanet, also of Buffalo, was treated at the hospital for contusions of the left knee and then discharged. They were taken to the hospital by City Officer J.W. Carmack, who investigated.

The man and woman were reported to have been occupants in a sedan operated by Donnett Powloski of Buffalo, which had stopped in the right lane of traffic on a one-way street. A truck, operated by James R. Plank, Gettysburg, failed to stop in time and ran into the sedan, driving it into another sedan which had stopped in line of traffic and operated by Clayton Ankerman, Toronto, Canada.

Damage was estimated at $200 to the Buffalo man's machine. There was no damage to the truck and about $10 damage to the Ankerman sedan. Plank was charged with reckless driving and a hearing set for Wednesday.

"WHERE IS HAPPINESS"

Where are you blissful happiness . . . why do you hide from me . . . I've called for you so many times . . . but you ignore my plea . . . where are you priceless treasure chest . . . I've sought you high and low . . . but like a shifty gust of wind . . . you flee from where I go . . . are you perhaps in distant land . . . across the ocean blue . . . or maybe in the stars above . . . oh, how I wish I knew . . . while on my quest I've only found . . . just bits of slanting sunlight that . . . are quick to disappear . . . are you beyond my reaching arms . . . outside the scope of thought . . . where are you tender happiness . . . my efforts seem for naught . . . if you are somewhere close to me . . . please give a warning sign . . . so I can welcome you into . . . this longing heart of mine.

EINSTEIN DIES

1948 presidential candidate as a man who "can save us from the threatening domestic and international situation."

The famous professor was granted the Wendell Willkie "One World Award" for 1948 "because he gave the world more than a new conception of the cosmos."

"In an age in which the ivory tower was the accepted intellectual home for scientists, he recognized that scientists, like every man, are involved in mankind, and cannot avoid taking a stand on the great moral issues of the time," the award citation said.

The life of this amazing intellectual giant was simple and modest. His disdain for personal glory and material gain were almost a legend. His baggy-clad figure, a pipe perpetually in his mouth, and his long shaggy white hair and mustache, made him instantly recognizable almost anywhere in the world.

Played Violin, Sailed

In his leisure Einstein loved to play the violin and to go sailing.

He was a familiar figure walking in the streets of Princeton where he made purchases in the local stores, and nodded "good mornings" as he went.

Einstein was married twice, first in 1903 to Mileva Maric, a Serbian Catholic whom he later divorced. They had two sons, Albert and Edward. The second marriage, in 1915, was to Elsa Einstein, his first cousin, who bore him two daughters, Ilse, who died in 1934, and Margot.

After his second wife's death in 1936, Einstein lived a secluded life in Princeton with his daughter Margot, and his housekeeper-secretary, Miss Helen Dukas.

Einstein said he believed that scientists could find the fundamental forces of nature and through them attain greater mastery of the universe in which we live.

Asked once how he formulated his theory of relativity, Einstein replied:

"I never believed an axiom."

Einstein, who had secluded himself from public contact in recent years, had been attached to the Institute for Advanced Study here.

The quiet, unpretentious wizard of mathematics and physics spent his lifetime searching for unified mathematical concept of the laws that govern the universe.

Born in Ulm, Germany, March 14, 1879, of middle class Jewish parents, he was swept to international fame by the theory of relativity which he devised at the age of 26.

The purpose is to show the community the accomplishments of this group and to create a desire among others to participate in this hobby.

The 12-week course, which was conducted in the Biglerville High School with one class meeting in the afternoon and the other in the evening last fall and winter, was under the supervision of the Adult Education Program by the Biglerville High School. The class instructor was Ernest Krake, Gettysburg, retired decorator.

Interest has been shown for an outdoor class which would be held in May and would be for beginners as well as for those who have taken previous lessons. All interested in such a course are asked to get in touch with Mr. Krake at the exhibit Wednesday evening or telephone Mrs. Richard Raffensperger, Biglerville, as soon as possible in order that plans may be completed.

Vaccine For Penna. Awaits Inspection

HARRISBURG (AP) — The state Health Department said today shipping of the Salk polio vaccine to Pennsylvania's 11 distribution points now hinges entirely on final inspection of the vaccine lots.

"The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has sent out the orders for Pennsylvania but in each case a specimen of the lot shipment must be checked and passed by the National Institute of Health before it can be shipped," said Dr. Berwyn F. Mattison, secretary of health.

URGES FULLER CANCER FIGHT

NEW YORK (AP) — Millions of Americans destined to have cancer need not die if means of fighting the disease are more fully employed, the American Cancer Society says.

In an annual report made public yesterday, the society called for a better utilization of "present medical, social and personal resources" in combating cancer.

The society also said its recent findings show that cancer will strike one in four Americans, or some 40 million persons. The estimate is based on the known rate of occurrence of the disease.

Seek Attention Early

The society pointed out that a primary requirement in fighting cancer is that individuals seek medical attention earlier than in past years.

The report noted that annually 10,000 women who contract cancer and are now being cured would have died of the disease 10 years ago.

Lung cancer is the only form of cancer which is increasing markedly and very rapidly," the report said.

In the past 20 years deaths from lung cancer in women have increased over 200 per cent and in men over 600 per cent, the survey found. In 1954 about 20,000 men died of lung cancer. The figure represents 17 per cent of all male cancer deaths, the report said.

U. S. GAVE 870 SHIPS IN 6 YEARS

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has supplied enough ships to make a huge fleet to friendly nations, some of them former enemies.

With delivery next month of two more ships to Japan, the number of Navy vessels loaned or otherwise provided for big and little countries in both hemispheres the last six years will total at least 870, a check of Defense Department records indicated today.

But there is no danger of the U. S. Navy running short of ships.

The Navy now is operating about 1,100 ships, slightly over 400 of them combat craft. And it still has more than 1,300 in reserve, even after transferring the 870 vessels to foreign nations. This stockpile includes a dozen battleships, 60 carriers of various sizes, 105 destroyers, 165 patrol type ships including destroyer escorts, 57 submarines and hundreds of amphibious, auxiliary and minelaying craft.

It was Einstein's disclosure, many years ago, that a small quantity of matter could produce astronomical quantities of energy, which was so spectacularly proved when the first atomic bomb exploded.

Called A-Bomb A Menace

But, the famous, white-haired scientist looked upon the A-bomb with misgivings.

In 1945, shortly after the dropping of the bomb on Hiroshima, he commented:

"At present atomic energy is not a boon to mankind, but a menace."

He saw one hope, however, that "it may intimidate the human race to bring order into its international affairs, which, without pressure of fear, it undoubtedly would not do."

A theoretical physicist, the tools of his trade were a fountain pen and a pad of paper.

Though few people understood Einstein's complex theories, his work is one of the important bases of today's electronic and television industries, and the great industrial developments which rely partly on the laws of atomic mass and energy.

He received the Nobel Prize in physics in 1921 and the world heaped honors and adulation upon the modest scientist, who pleaded:

"Idolize No Man."

"Let every man be respected as an individual and no man idolized. It is an irony of fate that I myself have been the recipient of excessive admiration and respect from my fellows through no fault of my own."

A professor emeritus of the Institute for Advanced Study at Princeton, Einstein spent the last years of his life in the university community.

He came to Princeton as a lifetime member of the institute in 1939, a voluntary exile from his native Germany, where the Nazis listed him as "an enemy of the state."

During recent years, Einstein took stands on issues far removed from the realm of theoretical physics. He said he was compelled to do so by his "passionate sense of social justice and social responsibility."

He headed a group of nationally prominent scientists who comprised the Emergency Committee of Atomic Scientists. The organization was formed "to advance the use of atomic energy in ways beneficial to mankind."

Today's Talk

AFTERNOON SUNSHINE

Take it all in all, afternoons are usually the brightest and most mature. Mornings are often dark, cloudy and unpleasant — but in the afternoon everything clears and it's a grand day! And with such a change the spirits of us all respond. Beginnings are so often full of discouragements.

I never despair or lose hope in a day merely because its start doesn't have good signs. In my summer island retreat so many of the mornings are cloudy, often with rain — but mostly the afternoons open up as though they had been merely getting together the ingredients for a beautiful day!

Life's most difficult days — its darkest ones — are those through youth leading to middle life. These are the testing days, the training days — the days in which we grow, develop, and learn to be patient, courageous and forgiving. It's during the afternoons of life that we begin to be blessed and to realize our blessings as never before.

In a barber shop today I watched a barber having fun with a small boy. He had just cut his hair. "And now," he said, "will you have a shave?" The boy laughed and squirmed. "Sure," he replied, still laughing. The barber covered his face with shaving soap, took a comb and went through the same motions as he would with a razor. Then he applied the hot towels and perfumed his face and said: "Next!" What a lot of fun for both, but as I looked on I said to myself that the time would come when the boy would have no dreams of becoming a man other than that he might be a boy again!

The afternoons of life can be our happiest, for then we can drop or shed our useless baggage and imagined fears. We can, more than at any other period of our lives, become independent and one-self, traveling freer, happier, and with confidence. We can then face the fullness of life and smile at its richness!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Luxury Of Silence"

UNCONQUERABLE

The dandelion laughs at men. It sees them bend to dig it out. Waits for the evening breeze, and then Strews seeds by thousands round about.

Its presence plainly is displayed With blooms of petals, solid gold.

But where the seeds for more are laid,

To man and woman isn't told.

From any lawn dig them away; Their roots with poisoned needles kill.

But twice their number in a day The spots they occupied will fill.

The power of men they can outlast. The dandelions seem to know No one can cut them down as fast As fresh replacements they can grow.

HARRISBURG (Pa.)—An administration source said Saturday Gov. George M. Leader is ready to recommend a cent a gallon boost in the gasoline tax and increased auto license fees.

At the same time, the source disclosed the governor also is expected to ask an increase in the borrowing capacity of the State Highway and Bridge Authority beyond its present $80 million dollar limit.

IKE LEARNS OF RED BUILD-UP OF PLANES IN FORMOSA AREA

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

AUGUSTA, Ga. (Pa.)—President Eisenhower has received intelligence information that the Chinese Communists are engaged in "an extensive buildup" of Red airpower opposite Formosa, which the United States is committed to defend.

Announcing this at Augusta yesterday after a conference with the President, Secretary of State Dulles told newsmen the buildup has "grave implications." He described it as:

1. "More intense and more broad in its scope" than the United States had been aware of until a few days ago.

2. A buildup which "indicates a higher degree of capability" on the part of the Communists to launch an attack "than we had been aware of a few weeks ago."

RECALL CARNEY STATEMENT

In a formal statement after a two-hour meeting with the President Dulles said:

"In relation to China, we discussed the grave implications of an extensive buildup, now in progress, by the Chinese Communists of offensive airpower on the China mainland opposite Formosa."

Dulles' elaboration on the buildup came at a brief news conference at a hotel after he had left the chief executive's vacation headquarters at the Augusta National Golf Club.

His remarks and his prepared statement, which was approved by Eisenhower, stirred new interest in a prediction attributed last month to Adm. Robert B. Carney that the Reds would be capable of launching an assault on the Chinese Nationalist Matsu Islands by April 15.

DULLES SUMMARIZES

The prediction the Communists would be set for an attack on Quemoy, a northern off-shore island, about May 15 was also attributed to Carney.

Dulles gave this summary of other aspects of their world problems:

1. It appears the Soviet Union now is willing to alter its 10-year stubborn policy of maintaining indefinitely Red forces of occupation in Austria." But Dulles added "nothing should be taken for granted" on the basis of last week's negotiations between Russia and Austria on an Austrian independence treaty.

2. Because of the developments looking toward an Austrian treaty, the prospects for a Big Four conference are "encouraging" if "the full facts (on the Moscow negotiations) do not disillusion us." Dulles declined to be pinned down as to whether he was talking about a conference of the chiefs of state or at a lower level.

SEN. WATKINS HITS "PHONY" LABEL ON ACT

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (Pa.)—Sen. Watkins (R-Utah), who helped pilot the Eisenhower administration's Refugee Relief Act through Congress, has sharply disputed the contention of Rep. Walter (D-Pa.) that it is a "phony."

Watson so described the 1953 act on Friday in disclosing to Senate investigators that he had written to Secretary of State Dulles March 14 urging that Edward Corsi be dropped as a special adviser on refugee problems.

Watson, co-author of the nation's basic immigration law, used the term "phony" in giving a Senate Judiciary subcommittee his opinion of an act which calls for the admission of 214,000 nonquota immigrants by the end of next year. The Pennsylvanian said Democratic lawmakers were given "little opportunity" to offer suggestions when the bill was passed by a Republican-controlled Congress.

SABOTAGE CHARGED

"To me it's not any phony," said Watkins, who was chief Senate sponsor of the legislation. "It can work and I think we'll get all these people over here."

The subcommittee is trying to find out how the refugee immigration program is working. There have been complaints it is moving too slowly. Corsi charged after his ouster that an "intolerant minority" in Congress and the State Department had "sabotaged" the program.

The subcommittee has tried to skirt the Corsi ouster row, but Watson brought the matter to the fore when he read a "strictly confidential" letter to Dulles in which the Pennsylvanian referred to Corsi — veteran Republican officeholder in New York State — as "a person of inferior judgment."

DENNIES CHARGES

Watson also spoke in his letter of Corsi's "association with highly objectionable groups and organizations, branded as subversive by the attorney general, and his neglect to resign from such organizations after their true nature had become a matter of common knowledge."

Corsi has vigorously denied such charges by Watson in the past and

Judges In Favor Of Boost In Salaries

PITTSBURGH (Pa.)—Pennsylvania judges, who earn from $14,000 to $25,000 a year, are in favor of a 50 per cent pay raise for themselves.

They unanimously passed a resolution at the close of their second annual judicial conference Friday, urging the state Legislature to boost their salaries and improve their pension system.

The official report on Friday evaluated the tests, said:

"The experiment lent no support to the theory that seeding can make, break or change a storm in a big way."

The official report on Friday from New York University, which is guilty of political trickery with serious foreign and domestic issues brought heated retorts yesterday from GOP ranks.

"Neither vicious personal attacks on the President nor the ridiculous efforts to undermine his outstanding record in office will succeed," chairman Leonard W.

Hall of the Republican National Committee said.

Truman did not mention Eisenhower by name, but delivered a blistering attack on his administration Saturday night at a big

Democratic dinner honoring Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn.

In a speech reminiscent of his 1948 "give 'em hell" campaign ef-orts, he charged the Eisenhower administration with bad management, blunders and with trying "political tricks with the grave and serious issues of both foreign and domestic policies."

The dinner, which attracted some 3,600 Democrats from all over the country, climaxed a two-day party rally during which the national committee discussed plans for the 1956 campaign.

LANCASTER, Pa. (Pa.)—A 73-year-old State Highway Dept. laborer

Meanwhile, the Austrian Foreign

Office is expected to make every effort to supply the United States,

Britain and France with all infor-

The news from Moscow was still the main topic. The Soviet Union's

Boston Red Sox Are Leading Loop Without Services Of Ted Williams; 30 Hits Sunday

By JOE REICHLER
The Associated Press

Ted Williams was still some 2,000 miles away from Fenway Park today but could it be that the Boston Red Sox have been using the power-laden bats he left behind?

The end of the first week of the infant baseball season finds the Red Sox not only leading the American League with five victories in six games but they also are on top with an astonishing .330 team batting average and 11 home runs.

The Red Sox yesterday pounded eight Baltimore pitchers for 30 hits, sweeping both ends of a double-header 14-5 and 12-9 to leap past Cleveland and New York and grab a full-game lead on the field.

Throneberry Good Fill-In

Faye Throneberry, 23-year-old ex-GI filling in for Williams in left field, has done the most toward easing the big guy's absence. The Memphis, Tenn., sophomore, clubbing at a torrid .400, is tied for the league lead with 12 runs batted in. His 10 hits include four doubles and three home runs. He rapped four hits yesterday including a double and home run, drove in two and scored six times.

Catcher Sammy White, another .400 hitter so far, drove home seven runs with five hits including a double and home run. Jackie Jensen, batting .455, knocked in four runs with six hits including a double, triple, and homer. Ted Lepcio collected four hits to boost his average to .348 and Billy Goodman is hitting .364.

Boston shared Sunday's spotlight with the Brooklyn Dodgers who continued their unbeaten ways with a sweep of a doubleheader from Pittsburgh 10-3 and 3-2.

Phil Stun Giants

Philadelphia's Phillies stunned the Giants with a pair of 4-2 victories to drop New York into a sixth place tie with Cincinnati.

A 10-run first inning started St. Louis off to a 14-1 runaway over Chicago after the Cubs had nipped the Cards in the opener 6-6 with two runs in the ninth. Cincinnati also pulled out a ninth inning 6-5 victory to gain a split with Milwaukee after the Braves had run off with the opener 10-1. It was the Reds' first victory after five straight defeats.

Cleveland and Chicago split a doubleheader, the Indians winning 4-2 behind Bob Lemon's five-hitter after southpaw Jack Harshman had pitched the White Sox to a 3-1 triumph in the opener. Johnny Schmitz and Spec Shea combined to pitch Washington to a 7-3 victory over their former New York Yankee teammates as Mickey Vernon and Lou Sayers hammered homers agains Eddie Lopat.

Three For All

Young Al Kaline hammered three home runs, two of them in the sixth inning to tie a major league record, as Detroit romped to a 16-0 rout of Kansas City. Steve Gromek yielded seven hits for his second victory, both against the Athletics.

The 20-year-old Kaline also singled to drive in six runs giving him 12 for the season. He leads both leagues with a .360 batting average on 14 hits in 25 times at bat. Teammate Harvey Kuenn also collected four hits, three doubles and a single.

5,000 Give Losing A's Wild Ovation

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Kansas City Athletics who haven't won a game since the season opener wound up their first road trip yesterday with a 16-0 loss to Detroit.

But when the players stepped off the plane at Kansas City's municipal airport last night, an estimated 5,000 persons gave them a wild ovation. The crowd was so enthusiastic the players had to struggle through it to reach buses taking them to their hotel.

"What the heck would they have done if we had won?" asked Bobby Shantz, the A's diminutive pitcher.

There were tears in coach Oscar Melillo's eyes.

Gus Zernial, the outfielder who had one of his poorest seasons last year at Philadelphia, said, "Why if this had been Philadelphia, I would have been afraid to get off the plane. We've just got to start winning."

ZULUETA FIGHT ON FRIDAY TOPS CARD FOR WEEK

By MURRAY ROSE

This is the week Orlando Zulueta hopes his luck turns. The 26-year old Cuban takes on lightweight champion Jimmy Carter in a non-title 10 at Washington Wednesday night and if he upsets the 135-pound boss he might get a shot at the title.

There were a few years when the fast jabbing Zulueta was either the No. 1 contender or high up in the division and he never got close to a chance at the champ.

Now, after three straight losses and one draw, he's meeting the lightweight king. Two of the defeats — to Kit Howard and Kenny Lane — were highly controversial and while they read the same as the other losses in the record books.

ACTION ON FRIDAY

There'll be a lot of action on Friday night with 19-year old Willie Pastrano faces Willie Troy of Washington in a 10-round at the Chicago Stadium. Win or lose, the hard-working Troy makes a lively fight. Pastrano made good March 29 when he whipped Al Andrews in the same arena.

TONIGHT'S FIGHTS

Tonight's fights feature middleweights and welterweights, boxing's two busiest divisions. Salt Lake City's Milo Savage, another crowd-pleasing 160-pounder, meets Bobby Boyd of Chicago in a 10 at New York's St. Nicholas Arena. In the rival show at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway Arena, welters Johnny Busso of New York and Gene Polker of Niagara Falls, N.Y., collide in the top 10.

Bullets Lose 6-3

In 1st Net Match

Gettysburg College's tennis team opened its opening match 6-3 to Muhlenberg at Allentown Saturday.

Today Coach Gene Haas took his men to Lancaster to engage Franklin and Marshall. On Wednesday the Bullets will meet Johns Hopkins here.

Umpires Organize; Seek More Members

A reorganization meeting of the Adams County Umpires Association was held Sunday at the American Legion Home when 10 members signed up for the coming season.

William K. Gilbert was elected president; Mr. Steinberg, vice president, and Paul Sponser, secretary-treasurer.

More umpires are needed and anyone interested is requested to notify Gilbert or Sponser.

The association will meet the first Thursday evening of each month at the Legion Home, the next meeting being scheduled for May 5.

TRACK MEET MAY 5

The Gettysburg-York High School track meet, originally scheduled for May 6, has been moved up until Thursday, May 5, it was announced today by George Forney, Warrior coach and athletic director. The meet will be held at York.

CRUSHED TO DEATH

HARRISBURG (AP)—Paul B. Forney, 43, of nearby New Cumberland, died at Harrisburg Hospital over the weekend of injuries suffered when a 14,000-pound load of steel dropped on him while working at the Bethlehem Steel plant, it was shown.

Promoter Manny Almeida said last night Culbertson's manager, Joe Villa, notified him the California suffered a twisted ankle and would not be able to fulfill the engagement.

TRABERT NOT TURNING PRO

HOUSTON (AP)—Tony Trabert, looking more each day like the heir apparent to Vic Seixas' national tennis championship, says he won't turn pro at least before the next Davis Cup challenge round.

Trabert was top-seeded for the 21st annual River Oaks Country Club tournament which started today. He won his fifth straight tournament over Seixas at Dallas yesterday.

The husky young star from Cincinnati with the slashing game took out the nationally ranked No. 1 man 6-3, 6-2, 7-5 in the finals of the Dallas Country Club invitation tournament.

He said he hasn't yet received any "concrete offers," indicating he may choose to stay in the amateur ranks unless an offer is highly attractive.

LA STARZA FIGHT OFF

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—A 10-round boxing bout scheduled for tonight between heavyweights Roland La Starza of New York and Baby Dutch Culbertson of Los Angeles has been cancelled.

Promoter Manny Almeida said last night Culbertson's manager, Joe Villa, notified him the California suffered a twisted ankle and would not be able to fulfill the engagement.

Mount Net Team Bows To Catholic

The Mt. St. Mary's College tennis team dropped a 5-4 decision to Catholic University Saturday at Emmitsburg. It marked the second loss in as many matches for the Mountaineers.

On Tuesday the Mount will play at Towson State Teachers College.

Les Del Gado, Catholic, defeated Morris O'Neill, 6-3, 6-1.

Joseph Whaley, Catholic, defeated Joseph Wasser, 6-2, 6-3.

Perry Thomas, Mount St. Mary's, defeated Dan O'Connor, 6-0, 6-6.

Joseph Lorenz, Catholic, defeated Al Maccuri, 6-1, 6-2.

Pat Flanagan, Mount St. Mary's, defeated Marty O'Connor, 6-1, 6-2.

Bob Edmonds, Catholic, defeated Tom Keech, 6-4, 2-6, 6-4.

Flanagan and O'Neill, Mount St. Mary's, defeated M. O'Connor and Edmonds, 1-6, 6-2, 6-2.

Whaley and Lorenz, Catholic, defeated Keech and Thomas, 8-6, 6-2.

(Mount St. Mary's won one double match by forfeit.)

GODFREY SAYS HIS SHOW WAS "TOP HEAVY"

NEW YORK (AP)—Arthur Godfrey, who fired six singers and three writers from his radio and TV shows, says his programs need fresh talent and a new pattern.

Godfrey on Friday gave the sack to the Four Mariners, a mixed Negro and white male quartet; Marion Marlowe; and Haleloke, attractive Hawaiian singer. Writers dismissed were Charles Horner, Preston H. Miles and Charles Siocum.

"We've become top-heavy with stars," Godfrey said. "We are going to try to break into the top 10 again with a new show."

Fred La Rosa in '53

"This will give more people a whack at it, give more opportunity."

Saying he may return to a pattern he formerly used, Godfrey added: "I always had people coming and going."

Asked if he plans any more changes in personnel, Godfrey replied, "not for a while. We'll see how this goes."

In October, 1953, Godfrey publicly dismissed singer Julius La Rosa. Since then, Godfrey also has fired from some of his shows orchestra leader Archie Bleyer, stage manager Chet O'Brien, and co-producer Larry Puck, fiance of Miss Mar-

Atomic Tests Have No Effect On Health

HARNEY

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Atomic Energy Commission physician says it is impossible to trace "any effect whatever on the general health" to the current atomic weapons tests in Nevada.

Dr. John C. Bugher, director of AEC's division of biology and medicine, told the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee on Friday that harmful effects, "to the extent that they occur at all, are very small."

The committee scheduled the session to allay fears on the subject.

Sullivan Hires Marlowe

Yesterday's firings were announced by CBS, with Godfrey giving the performers notice in his office immediately after his morning TV-radio show.

Miss Marlowe immediately was signed for six appearances by Ed Sullivan, CBS master of ceremonies for the "Toast of the Town" show.

Sullivan, who also hired La Rosa after his dismissal, said Friday he hoped to sign the Mariners for an appearance and added:

"It's nothing personal against Godfrey. If they'd fire him I'd try to sign him up too."

Godfrey's singers now consists of Janet Davis, the three McGuire Sisters, Fran Parker and Carmel Quinn. Another singer, Lu Ann Simms, is on maternity leave.

TRAIN DERAILLED IN NEW VIOLENCE IN RAIL STRIKE

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — New strike violence and unrest in the deep South was marked on Friday by the derailment of a passenger train near Nashville, Tenn. A rail official called it sabotage.

Thirty passengers were shaken up when nine cars of the northbound Dixie Flyer of the strike-crippled Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis Railroad were derailed. None was injured.

Fred Whitemore, general superintendent of the railroad, said:

Definitely Sabotage

"This is definitely sabotage and there is no doubt about it. Joints were removed from the track. Angle bars and other track appliances were found adjacent to the track on the right-of-way."

T. H. Gregg, vice-chairman of a nonoperating strike team, said "as far as I am concerned, until someone proves that some of our people are involved, I will never agree that they are."

Gov. Frank Clement called on the state's law enforcement agencies to assist in the investigation. Whitemore said he had asked the FBI also to lend a hand.

Only the engine and two cars of the Chicago-Florida train remained on the track.

Meanwhile a sympathy strike of nearly 25,000 Birmingham steelworkers ended on Friday, but a strike of about 4,000 additional Louisville and Nashville Railroad workers was called for Monday.

The steelworkers, members of the United Steel Workers (CIO), began to stay away from their jobs Thursday night when picket lines were formed at the huge Fairfield works of the Tennessee Coal & Iron Division of U. S. Steel. Other plants were affected as the walkout spread.

The steelworkers struck in sympathy with the Communications Workers of America (CIO), who have been striking against the Southern Bell Telephone Co.

Some damage was reported in the nine-state Southern Bell strike. A 70-pair cable between Atlanta and Birmingham, Ala., was cut and also a cable between Atlanta and Rome, Ga. A long distance cable connecting Miami, Fla., with Key West, Fla., and Havana, Cuba, was hot out.

The CWA has said from the start that damage of this sort was not its doing.

The walkout at Southern Bell began March 14 after failure to agree on a new contract. The company maintains settlement is being blocked by union refusal to accept a no-strike clause. The union says such a clause is secondary and that wages and the company's refusal to submit all issues to arbitration are of more importance.

L&N workers walked out in support of demands for health and welfare benefits, primarily and provision for compulsory health insurance.

Here's the New Hit in Hardtops
—the 4-Door Riviera

Want to do what a pilot does when he clears for take-off?

Want to feel the pulse-quicken thrill that comes of giving the gun to a high-powered automobile with the world's first airplane-inspired transmission?

Want to try Buick's Variable Pitch Dynaflow® — the spectacular new wonder drive that's the talk of car makers and car buyers alike — and the drive that's sending Buick sales soaring to new record-breaking highs?

Well, sir — be our test-pilot guest at the wheel of a '55 Buick and let today's Dynaflow do the honors.

When you press the pedal as you normally would, you move ahead in velvety smoothness, getting plenty of miles from each gallon of gas . . .

Because twenty propeller-like blades inside the Dynaflow unit, spinning in oil, have an angle of "pitch" for top economy — like the modern plane's propellers when cruising in the air.

But comes the need for emergency acceleration, and — like a pilot does for quick take-off and climb — you switch the pitch of those Dynaflow propellers for action, just by pressing the pedal all the way down.

Instantly, you get full-power response for split-second getaway, or for a sudden safety-surge to get out of a tight spot on the highway.

It's a response thrilling beyond all previous experience — because there's never been anything like it before in any car.

And we'd like you to try it — along with the wallop new V8 power, the cruiser-steady ride, the fine handling ease, and the true big-car roominess that are all part and parcel of every Buick.

Can you come in today — this week, for sure — and test pilot the hottest Buick yet built?

GUTTYSBURG, PA.

COURT RULING AIDS WOLFSON IN WARD'S FIGHT

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. George M. Leader says his as yet undisclosed tax program will be "fair and equitable" but "I doubt that it shall be popular."

Leader told the closing banquet of the Pennsylvania Conference on Education on Friday that:

"Burdenome though it may appear, it is the fairest, most workable program that could be devised to meet the situation."

The program, designed to raise 400 to 500 million dollars in new revenue is reportedly built around a modified state income tax.

The governor told the conference that one of the principal factors in increased costs of state government has been education, especially pay increases for teachers and new building expenditures.

"When he accepted the highest judicial responsibility in the nation he closed the door on partisan politics," Kuchel said.

Sen. Dvorshak (R-Idaho) said

Warren "is to be commended for his statement removing his high judicial post from the political arena. The Supreme Court should never be involved in partisan politics."

Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.), who was the Democratic candidate for vice president in 1952, said Warren's action removes "one of the ablest men in the Republican ranks."

Egyptian delegates who arrived ahead of Nasser said it was Nehru who took the initiative in arranging the Egyptian leader's stop in New Delhi and the preconference meeting with Chou in Burma.

A search of several hours ended when the bodies of Albert Arebalo, 8, and his small companion, David Anthony Fennelly, 2, were found by sheriff's deputies.

ment on the decision until he has had time to study it.

The opinion said that while the constitutional provision "does not expressly prohibit staggered elections" it also does not "foreclose a construction which invalidates the statute authorizing such election."

The court took note of Ward's argument predicting "alarming results" if Wolfson's suit was upheld. The court said there are 1,655 domestic corporations whose securities are listed on the major stock exchanges. Only 196, or 11.8 per cent, have classified boards of directors elected for staggered terms.

Will Not Be Widespread

"Consequently, we do not believe that the disturbance envisioned by appellants will be widespread," the court said. "Appellants also voiced serious misgivings as to the future of corporate life and commercial transactions if classified boards are held to infringe the constitutional right."

"These fears are unwarranted," the court said.

The Supreme Court decided the Circuit Court was correct in holding unconstitutional section 35 of the Illinois Business Corporation Act. This act was the legal foundation for the Ward staggered system of electing three of its nine directors each year.

The opinion was written by Justice

W. F. Avery.

Wolfson wanted the election to involve all nine directors because it would give him a mathematical chance to elect a majority.

In Chicago, Wolfson's headquarters issued a statement quoting the financier as saying he "is confident he will win control of the board at next week's meeting" of stockholders. Wolfson is in New York.

The decision will require the management to stand for election every year, and will remove the barrier which Mr. Avery has erected between himself and the real owners of the business—the stockholders," the statement quoted Wolfson.

Anxious To Rebuild

It said also that Wolfson "is anxious to begin the job of rebuilding Montgomery Ward."

A spokesman for Avery, Ward's chairman, said he would not comment.

They are openly questioning the purpose of the "little Bandung" conference held on Friday in Rangoon by Indian Prime Minister Nehru, Red China's Chou En-lai and Abdel Gamal Nasser of Egypt, with Burmese Premier U Nu as host.

The four Premiers held two sessions last night, one before and one after a banquet. There was no hint of what they discussed although presumably it concerned the conference here.

Egyptian delegates who arrived ahead of Nasser said it was Nehru who took the initiative in arranging the Egyptian leader's stop in New Delhi and the preconference meeting with Chou in Burma.

Garden And Building News

Rooms Five Bedrooms Two
Closets Eight
Cubage: House 19,300 ft.
Garage 5,110 ft.
Dimensions 39' x 26'

As you would expect of a house with such a name, "The El Rancho," today's presentation from the Home of the Week Plan Service, is a beautiful modern ranch house.

Straight simple lines give "The El Rancho" an informal charm that makes this house especially adaptable to a suburban or rural location. Simple landscaping is best suited to the house, but if you so desire, you can give full vent to your desire for a flower and vegetable garden in the rear of the house.

To most effectively enhance the exterior appearance of "The El Rancho" have the house set back a good distance from the road. The house proper measures 39' x 26'; total length, including the attached garage, is 61'. Hence, at least an 85-foot lot would be required. Cubage of the house is 19,300 feet; cubage of the garage is 5,110 feet.

Living and work centers, the kitchen and living room, are located in the front of "The El Rancho" so that the sleeping quarters can be placed in the rear part of the house. Included in the kitchen is a good sized breakfast nook which will prove popular with the family for many meals and for between-meal snacks as well.

Designed to double as a dining room, the spacious living room is well planned for both uses. Plenty of light and ventilation is provided by the large picture window and two smaller windows in the front wall and also by the regular window in the left wall. The fireplace is a welcome feature from a practical and decorative standpoint.

Both bedrooms are well lighted and ventilated; each boasts an unusually spacious closet. Through-out "The El Rancho" there is a generous amount of centrally located closets so that storage should present no problem to the family living in this ranch house. The housewife will especially appreciate the extra sized cedar closet and the good sized line closet.

Easy access is provided to both the front yard and the back terrace from the first floor utility room or laundry. Measuring 11' x 10' this room is very well lighted by four windows and is sufficiently large to easily accommodate all your home laundry equipment.

Protected entrance to the garage is provided from both the front porchway and from the back terrace. The one-car garage contains ample space for overhead storage of screens, etc.

Since the laundry is located on the first floor of "The El Rancho" the only required installation in the basement is the heating equipment. This should be placed under the living room.

Complete plans and specifications for this house and all other "Home of the Week" designs are available at moderate cost.

For plan prices, write to the Home Building Editor, The Gettysburg Times, Dept. 18, and enclose a self-addressed, 3c stamped envelope. Allow 7 to 10 days for a reply.

Snake Appears In Plane At 1,500 Ft.

JACKSON, Tenn. (AP)—Just as Lt. Harry Scott of Jackson climbed to 1,500 feet in a National Guard plane for a 500-mile cross-country flight, a snake stuck his head out of the instrument panel.

"I didn't ask his pedigree," said Scott. "At 1,500 feet snakes are snakes to me."

Scott and his companion, Sgt. Bedford Lasley, were back on the ground five minutes after takeoff.

Guardsmen had to take the instrument panel out to remove the snake, a 42-inch chicken snake. They killed it.

The snake was found in the front yard and the back terrace from the first floor utility room or laundry. Measuring 11' x 10' this room is very well lighted by four windows and is sufficiently large to easily accommodate all your home laundry equipment.

Protected entrance to the garage is provided from both the front porchway and from the back terrace. The one-car garage contains ample space for overhead storage

EXPLOSION ON PLANE BEFORE FATAL CRASH

BOMBAY, India (AP)—Surviving Air India crewmen say a "muffled explosion" preceded the crash of their four-engined plane which carried 11 Bandung-bound Communists to death in the China Sea last Monday.

The government-owned airline quoted the three rescued crewmen yesterday as saying the "explosion" was followed by the emanating from an extraneous source wholly unconnected with the structure of the aircraft."

The statement was issued as Britain and Red China swapped counter-charges over the plane incident which has grown into an international dispute. Investigators from Red China, India and Indonesia were scheduled to fly to the crash scene today.

15 Died In Crash

Fifteen persons perished in the crash including the 11 Reds—eight Chinese, two Poles and a North Vietnamese—en route to the Asian-African conference at Bandung, Indonesia. The survivors were the co-pilot, M. C. Dixit, ground engineer Karnik and navigator Pathak.

Swiss chard and New Zealand spinach yield so abundantly that care should be taken to limit the space given either. As fast as one harvest is cut from the plants they produce another, continuing all season until frozen.

Lettuce, romaine, endive, Chinese cabbage and salad herbs are leaf crops, essential to a daily salad which the family will enjoy and thrive upon.

Next in food production, compared to space occupied, are vegetables of which we eat roots, stems, or seed pods. Beets, carrots, parsnips, broccoli, snap beans, turnips and onions all give heavy yields, are rich those of which we eat the leaves, the "green, leafy" kind, so rich in vitamins. Not spinach, however. It is harvested only in the early summer or fall and the plants do not produce again.

Chard is a leaf crop.

Parsnips are a root crop.

A plan which keeps your garden space busy throughout the season will require some study. The crops which require most planning are those which give a short harvest and should be planted for several in calorie value, vitamins and minerals.

Don't discard any of these on the theory that you do not like them, unless you have eaten them when half grown, fresh from the garden. This is an experience which only home gardeners can enjoy, and it will give anyone a new conception of how delicious vegetables can be.

Vegetables which give the lowest return are those of which we eat the seed or fruits, such as melons, cucumbers, squash, sweet corn, peas and lima beans. But if you can grow these on stakes, trellises or fences, thus exploiting the air rights of your garden area, you can afford these luxury crops even in a small garden.

Tomatoes, pruned and staked, take up no more space than carrots, yet yield abundantly over a long season. Cucumbers, melons, and pole lima beans are all good crops for training on a garden fence, where they yield well.

A plan which keeps your garden space busy throughout the season will require some study. The crops which require most planning are those which give a short harvest and should be planted for several crops, maturing one after the other. The tendency is to sow too much in the spring, so there is more than you can use from the first harvest, then a scarcity later on.

The faster a vegetable grows, the less time it remains in good table condition after it matures. To prevent waste, you must sow at first only enough seed to produce the vegetables you can use before they lose quality. Then make other sowings, to mature in succession, so you always have a new crop, in harvest or approaching it.

Texans Send Plow To Dr. Jonas Salk

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP)—Folks around here shelled out $22,251.29 yesterday to fight cancer—but they didn't forget Dr. Jonas Salk, who developed the polio vaccine.

They plan to send the University of Pittsburgh researcher a new car and a plow.

Salk does not have a farm. Only about 10 per cent of the land area of China can be used for farms.

PENNSYLVANIA DUTCH BOAST OF SHOOFLY PIE!

BY CECILY BROWNSTONE

Associated Press Food Editor

Regional dishes! Every section of America boasts of its own traditional recipes and we have reason to be proud of and interested in them.

Now comes a letter from an Ohio reader about that specialty of Pennsylvania Dutch kitchens — shoofofy pie.

This pie is really fun. To make it, we roll out pastry crust and pour a mixture of molasses, water and baking soda into it. Then we sprinkle a crumbly mixture of flour, sugar, spices, salt and butter or margarine over the liquid. A strange combination to put in the oven and expect to come out an edible pie!

But it does—with a flaky bottom crust, then a brown sturdy layer and a cake-like top. Fascinating to make, sweet and rich to eat.

Well admit right now that there are other ways to prepare shoofofy pie. Some cooks like to layer the liquid and the crumbs, others put the crumbs in first and then add the liquid. But if you use our ingredients, you'll have the best results with them if you follow our directions.

Many Variations

There are also lots of names for shoofofy pie. Sometimes it is called molasses shoofofy pie or just plain molasses pie. Sometimes it goes under the name of shoofofy cake or molasses crumb cake. And occasionally it gets its name from a Pennsylvania county and is called Montgomery pie.

We subjected our shoofofy pie to the test this regional specialty needed: one of our tasters grew up in Pennsylvania Dutch country. Our culinary guinea pig gave our recipe her full approval. She also approved an innovation in serving the pie—a tart lemon sauce to go with it. We have a feeling that if enough shoofofy addicts try this lemon sauce as an accompaniment to the pie, it is going to sneak into Pennsylvania Dutch tradition. Now that our family has tasted this dual treat, they cannot be persuaded to eat one without the other.

Shoofofy Pie

Ingredients: 1½ cups sifted flour, ½ cup sugar, ¼ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon nutmeg, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/3 cup butter or margarine, ¾ cup dark old-fashioned molasses, ¾ cup water, ½ teaspoon baking soda, one unbaked pastry shell (fitted into a 9 ½-by 1½-inch heat-resistant glass pie plate so crust has a fluted edge).

Method: Sift together the flour, sugar, salt, nutmeg and cinnamon. Add butter; cut in with two knives or pastry blender until fat is entirely worked into flour mixture. Stir molasses, water and baking soda together well. Pour molasses mixture into unbaked pastry shell; spoon crumbs all over top of liquid. Bake in a moderate (375 degrees) oven 35 minutes. Serve warm with lemon sauce.

Lemon Sauce

Ingredients: 2 tablespoons cornstarch, ½ cup sugar, ¼ teaspoon salt, 2 cups boiling water, 1 tablespoon grated lemon rind, 3 tablespoons lemon juice, ¼ cup butter or margarine.

Method: Stir cornstarch, sugar and salt together thoroughly in saucepan. Add lemon rind. Gradually stir in boiling water until smooth. Cook and stir constantly over moderate heat until thickened and clear. Remove from heat; stir in lemon juice and butter. Serve warm over portions of shoofofy pie. Makes 2½ cups.

Sprinkle live lightly with crushed marjoram for new and different taste.

MOST FIRMS ARE SHOWING WIDER PROFIT

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Profits this year are running ahead of last year by a margin wider than few but the most optimistic foresaw.

The first 65 corporations to report on earnings after taxes in the first three months of operations show three out of four doing better than year last.

Combined, their net profits are 21 per cent higher than in the first quarter of 1954.

Partly this is because business is good this year. Partly it's because business this time last year was mediocre to poor for many companies.

Sales Were Down

Then many companies were running on reduced production schedules. Sales were down and gross profits with them. A sizable number, however, maintained their equilibrium because reduced taxes kept net income from sliding.

This year tax rates are at about the same level as last. The gains this year, therefore, reflect increased sales or trimmed operating costs, or both.

The profit gains aren't uniform by any means. Eighteen of the 65 companies show a drop in earnings.

Two firms operated at a loss. A year ago there were five in that plight.

Striking profit gains this year are reported by some of the steel companies and the railroads. In both fields the early months of 1954 were slowdown periods. Steel production and earnings shrank. For some railroads the red ink came out on the accountants' desks.

Chemicals Gaining

This year both are doing better than they had expected only a short time ago.

Chemicals are among the profit gainers, reflecting better sales. Building material producers are more prosperous, as befits suppliers for the big building boom. Textile firms look better this year—in many cases because they looked so bad a year ago. Mining companies have better profit reports, aided by increased demand for their products and by higher prices.

Among the food companies to report early, more show declines in profits this year than advances. So do tool makers and distillers.

CREDIT PRAYERS OF NEIGHBORS IN GIRL'S RECOVERY

By STAN CARTER

CHICAGO (AP)—A young suburban couple believes the prayers of neighbors are helping their 6-year-old, brown-eyed daughter to recover from sleeping sickness.

The child, Gayle Russell, lies in a coma at Lutheran Deaconess Hospital. Eyes open, she stares at her parents but does not recognize them. She screams and cannot eat.

But she is beginning to move her arms and legs. Two weeks ago they were completely paralyzed. She was given a 50-50 chance to live. Now, the doctors say, the odds have improved.

Many Are Praying

Gayle's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Russell of Morton Grove, just north of Chicago.

Russell said last night Gayle's improvement seemed to coincide with a call for prayers issued by spiritual leaders of three Catholic churches, three Jewish temples and several Protestant churches in Morton Grove and three neighboring communities.

Neighbors heard of Gayle's illness and reported it to their pastors. Several pastors asked their congregations a week ago to pray

Portland Store Is Shaken By Blast

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—A heavy explosion in a crowded Portland department store was under a quiet but intense investigation by police today.

The sharp blast at midafternoon on Friday wrecked a third-floor restroom in the 12-story Meier & Frank Department Store, Portland's largest. Two persons were injured, but not seriously. A row of elevators cut off the shock from the shopping area.

For Gayle's recovery. Others mentioned the child in prayers at church services last week and again yesterday.

The Skokie News, a neighborhood newspaper, said last week, "the entire community continues to pray for Gayle."

The Russells are Catholics. "I think she's getting better," Russell said. "I think the prayers of all those people are helping her."

The doctors said she apparently developed peritonitis after her appendix was removed, and that this in turn caused toxic poisoning in her system which caused the encephalitis.
